Chapter 1 by Melissa Vallejo

It was the darkest day of all of our lives and it all started with a dare.....

My friends and I were outside doing childish things and playing truth or dare. "I dare you to.....ask a stranger for their number." said Lisa. "Your dumb as fuck.....do you see anyone out here?" said Brian. "Fine but this dare is going to be a hard one. I dare you to go to the haunted house where the witch lives." "Thats easy we all know its just a myth." "Okay let's go!" Me, Lisa, Brian, Jacob, and Brittany walked down the street to go to the witch's home. "Were here." said Lisa. We jumped over the fence and walked up to the door. "Well go inside Brian and get it over with." I said "I know" replied Brian. "You're not scared are you?" "Of course not." "Well then go" We all helped break down the door because obviously it was locked. As the door made a big sound dust filled the living room. Brian slowly walked in the house and said "There I went inside this dumb ass home." After he said that we heard another voice. "I don't think my home is dumb." Brian slowly turned around and nearly fainted. Brittany screamed and ran down the street. Lisa and Jacob just stood with a frightened face and so was I. After all who wouldn't? You're seeing what you thought was a myth. "Well don't be frightened,I'm not a mean wick, they just made up stories to make me seem evil. Sure I have powers but I never meant to harm anyone. You would imagine the witch all old and wrinkled but she was 30 years old with blond hair, tall, and unexpectedly beautiful. She was wearing a red dress and couldn't tell what color they were but I was thinking
